

Warning! Text Messaging Scam Alert

A member has received a text messaging scam from the “Credit Union’s National Association”. It was a “message alert” and directed the member to call a specified telephone number. When the number was called, the member was asked to give personal information including last four digits of the social security number, account number, debit card number, CVV number, and PIN number.

DO NOT FALL PREY TO THIS SCAM

- Never provide your personal information in response to an unsolicited request. Neither we (Georgia State University FCU) nor any of our third party providers (for example VISA) will ever ask a member to disclose account or other personal information via text message. If you receive a similar text message call Georgia State University FCU as soon as possible.
